

INTRODUCTION OF CONTINUAL PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (CPD)

DISA are pleased to announce that from September they will be members of the Continual Professional Development (CPD) scheme in partnership with the Security Institute.

Many DISA events and activities will attract CPD points – why not start in September with:-

- DISA Training courses
- DISA AGM & CONFERENCE

CPD is free to everyone. Find out more about the scheme and how you can benefit from it. Diane Thomas from the Security Institute will be delivering a presentation at the DISA Conference on 25th September about the scheme and how it works, along with details of the many advantages it offers.....

- Progress your career
- Achieve recognition
- Keep up to date with issues and change
- Achieve your goals

.....and much more

Book your place now at the AGM & Conference and look forward to earning CPD points.

Don't forget all DISA training courses earn CPD points – including the newly launched course 'An Introduction to Government Security'.

Visit the DISA website for details of all our courses and events
www.thedisa.org